DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY:

DAY 01: USA / BOGOTA

Arrive this evening to the country's Andean capital, Bogota (8,860 ft), located in the center of the country and set in a wide plateau. Meet your friendly Southwind representative who will bring you to the charming colonial style Hotel De La Opera, located in the historic neighborhood of La Candelaria, about 40 minutes from the airport. Meals are on your own today.

DAY 02: BOGOTA

Following breakfast, join your guide for a full day tour of the city and surrounding highlights starting with a walking tour of La Candelaria. From its humble beginnings, this is the oldest part of Bogota and site of Plaza Bolivar (Main Square). Architecture here relates to the colonial and republican era, examples of which include the Palace of Justice and Colombian Congress. The Plaza is also home to the Mayor's office and the Primary Cathedral of Bogota. As you wander the streets of La Candelaria, learn from your guide about the intricacies of daily life. At the Botero Museum, take in a permanent exhibition of paintings and sculptures by Fernando Botero, Colombia's most famous artist. The museum also houses work by other world-famous artists such as Dali, Monet and Van Gogh. Next door is the Casa de La Moneda (mint) home to a museum featuring a historic tour of currency and money used in Colombia. At the Gold Museum, we find one of the finest collections of pre-Hispanic gold in the world with 35,000 pieces of pre-Colombian work in the collection, many said to be unsurpassed by goldsmiths of today.

Lunch is included at the Son de Los Grillos, one of the city's oldest restaurants featuring traditional and international cuisine. This afternoon, we drive north of the city through country-side once occupied by the native Muisca Indians. At Zipaquirá, we find a celebrated Salt Cathedral an artistic masterpiece carved underground in a still functioning salt mine. The surrounding area stands out for its picturesque rolling farmland, its hidden mineral jewel beneath the earth's surface. Return to the familiar Hotel De La Opera for a restful night with dinner on your own this evening. Driving time: 2.5 Hours (B,L)

DAY 03: BOGOTA / PEREIRA

After a leisurely breakfast, transfer to the airport for a non-stop 1 hour flight to Pereira (4,630 ft), located in the coffee region. Here in the heart and soul of Colombia every turn presents a spectacular panorama of fertile hillsides with coffee plantations and plunging valleys. The rural Campesino life continues as it has done it for centuries harvesting coffee, plantains, bananas and several other fruits in this verdant land. Experience a sense of tranquility blended with adventures and friendly encounters with locals. Outside town, in a region declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, we arrive at the Sazagua Hotel, a boutique property located just 15' from the airport, featuring a design that reflects artisan skills inspired by the surrounding mountains and lakes. This afternoon take a sensory trip with your private guide around Pereira to pick-up fresh ingredients at the local market while mingling with local residents among a hustle-bustle vibe. Learn about less common fruits and vegetables and how they are prepared in Colombian cuisine. Afterwards, we drive return to the peaceful grounds of the Sazagua Hotel to prepare the basic ingredients with the seasoned chef who helps transform them into local delicacies. At the end of this hands-on interactive cooking experience, we can taste the special dishes. Afterwards, some time at leisure to enjoy the comforts of the hotel. Driving time: 2 Hours (B,D)

DAY 04: COFFEE REGION / ACAIME RESERVE

Today we drive south into the Quindío region and Cocora Valley where tall and slender Wax palm trees grow in one of its few natural habitats. We stop in Quindío, the first settlement of the modern era to visit the small quaint pueblo of Salento. The main square has not changed in appearance or character in decades. Walking Salento's narrow streets with brightly painted houses in the heart of coffee region, we stop at one of the many small coffee stores or crafts shops. Continuing our journey to the lush Cocora Valley, we arrive at the trailhead for our Wax palm hike. The route heads north and then down into the valley passing a trout farm that supplies most of the restaurants in town. We cross the river on a stable but sometimes slippery basic foot bridge. The hike continues along the bridle path with panoramic views of the Wax palms along the mountain fringe. Great photo opportunities for capturing images of the palms backdropped by the central cordillera of Los Nevados National Park.

This is a prime location for the palm which is a national symbol and protected species. From here, the hike ascends into the cloud forest once again along an easy, but sometimes slippery ascent and descent over tree roots traversing the contour of the river. The vegetation here becomes lush and denser providing excellent birding from several river crossings on basic bridges and stepping on stones. After 2 hours of hiking, a short ascent leads to the Acaine Reserve where 6-12 different species of hummingbirds are often spotted around the friendly reserve keeper's feeders. Snacks, hot coffee and soft drinks are available at the reserve. Later, we descend to the river and follow our return route with bridge crossings and out into the open plains and trails end. A well-deserved lunch is included at the nearby Donde Juan B restaurant where the specialty is the local trout and salads. This afternoon we return to the familiar Sazagua Hotel for the night. Driving time: 3 Hours, Hiking time: 3-4 Hours

DAY 05: COFFEE REGION

Early in the morning, we meet our guide and driver to head north through stunning scenery, carpeted rolling hills of lush green coffee, plantain and yucca fields towards the Caldas region. En route we visit the coffee farm Hacienda Venecia. Coffee makes this part of the country unique; it's the heart and soul of the region and its culture. Campesinos (local rural workers) pass by on their way to work in the fields, and children walk to school or wait for the morning bus. We join a tour of a coffee plantation to see the whole process from planting, seedling, picking, toasting and of course tasting. We learn about the trials and tribulations of the coffee growers and how their whole way of life is affected by this simple bean.

A traditional lunch is served today at a nearby restaurant to taste local dishes. We then continue to Hacienda Providencia, a horse breeding farm recognized for the Paso Fino pedigree with a demonstration of the breed's Trote (trot). The Paso Fino (fine step) is a naturally gaited light horse breed imported to the Caribbean from Spain. Pasos are prized for their smooth, natural, four beat, lateral ambling gait. They are used in many disciplines but are especially popular for riding. Equestrian activity in Colombia is as big and beautiful as Polo is to Argentina. After the show, we'll go for a horseback ride among the mountain landscape of the hacienda to experience the local culture and biodiversity. Later, we drive back to the Sazagua Hotel for dinner on our own to taste the restaurant's native cuisine and have a restful night. Driving time: 2.5 Hours

DAY 06: PEREIRA / CARTAGENA

Following a hearty breakfast, we transfer to the Pereira airport to catch a flight to Cartagena, a notable UNESCO World Heritage Site. We meet our Southwind local guide on arrival and drive to the Ananda boutique Hotel in the historic downtown close to the Santo Domingo square, Cathedral and Inquisition Palace as well as boutiques, art galleries and restaurants. Founded in 1533 by Pedro de Heredia, Cartagena was formerly the Caribbean gateway port used by the Spanish. Cartagena's rich history, diverse culture and energy absorbs visitors by providing a glimpse into the past in a relaxing setting. This passionate and vibrant city has some of the best-preserved colonial architecture in all South America, it radiates character, mixing African rhythms and indigenous influences with the Spanish colonial splendor. This afternoon we join our guide for a panoramic tour of the old town on a horse-drawn carriage.

A fun way to experience the city is a traditional horse and cart ride along the cobbled streets of Cartagena's old town. With a cool Caribbean breeze to refresh us, we wind along lanes with colonial buildings with flower arranged balconies. As our horseman maneuvers his cart through the late afternoon bustle, we watch day turn to night and see a different side of Cartagena come alive. Afterwards, we return to the Ananda Hotel for the evening. Dinner is on your own to try some of the nearby gourmet restaurants.
(B)

DAY 07: CARTAGENA

Our tour this morning takes you through old town under a symbol of Cartagena, the Puerta Del Reloj (Clock tower entrance) and into the Plaza de los Coches. During the walk we visit the Inquisition Palace where in September 1610, the inquisition was established in Cartagena de Indias. The Inquisition building is considered one of the most elegant and characteristic colonial constructions of its time in the 17th century. Looming over the historic center, the San Felipe fortress dominates the city skyline. The largest fortification built by the Spanish anywhere in the Americas, it stands as an imposing example of military might and architecture. Construction on the site started in 1586 with the fortifications and ramparts strengthened during the next 200 years. Underneath is a labyrinth of tunnels, many of which are lit and accessible to visitors. Cartagena's history owes much to this fort and the stories surrounding it are intriguing to hear.

From the fort, we continue by private vehicle to La Popa Convent situated at the highest point in the city with excellent views of the bay, old town and Caribbean Sea beyond. Started initially as a humble wooden chapel but later it was replaced by a more solid construction fortified two centuries later. Here we find flower filled patios and can visit the historic interior of the convent. For lunch, we stop at Montesacro, a restaurant in the heart of this walled city offering a selection of traditional cuisine. By late afternoon, we join our guide for a private boat ride around the bay of Cartagena, sipping a cocktail and watching the sunset, as a nice way to wind down from today's activities. Back at the comfortable Ananda Hotel, we'll spend the rest of the evening at leisure. You may want to stay in and try the refined and relaxed atmosphere of the hotel restaurant specializing in international cuisine with its own creations emphasizing Caribbean seafood.

DAY 08: CARTAGENA

This morning, experience a local fishing community while exploring mangroves by canoe. The fishing village of La Boquilla is located 30 minutes east of Cartagena in a wetland region. Many of the villagers are of African descent, on arrival there will be a dance performance and refreshment of fresh green coconut milk. The Cueva Del Manglar is the Spanish name given to this protected ecosystem rich in birdlife. Here in one of the most biodiverse countries on the planet, you may spot kingfisher, white heron and pelicans among other bird species. As we explore the mangroves in canoes paddled by local fisherman, we discover a wealth of flora and fauna. This is an ideal way to navigate the shallow waters through the “tunnels” naturally created by the Mangrove trees. Back in the city, a traditional lunch is served at the PaloSanto Restaurant.

Later this afternoon, we get to move to the beat of local rhythms with a private salsa dance lesson from local professionals in the historic center. We get to learn some of the basic steps in a relaxed and fun atmosphere. Colombia has a great passion for this sultry dance practiced throughout the country with an elegant ease and sensuality. The African influence here has helped salsa develop a sound and step all its own. To wrap up the day, we can partake in a rum and chocolate tasting at Restaurant 1621 in the deluxe Sofitel Legend Santa Clara Hotel. We taste some of the finest rums from different regions of Colombia including an aged variety of 3 and 8 years old. The rum, produced from sugar cane, is a popular national drink awarded several worldwide accolades. Our sommelier will pair tastes of the rum with some of Colombia’s most delightful chocolates for a delicious combination. Colombia is the world’s 9th largest grower of cacao and you will be able to try chocolates ranging from 65% to 70% cocoa content. Afterwards, we return to the Ananda Hotel for a restful final night in South America before returning home. Driving time: 1.5 Hours (B,L)

DAY 09: CARTAGENA / USA

This morning, we’re picked-up at the hotel and transferred to the airport with check-in assistance for the flight home. (B)
